The News Letter of the Central Fraser Valley Chapter of the Vintage Car Club of Canada

Minutes for the February 2, 2011
General Meeting of the Central Fraser Valley Chapter of the VCCC

Meeting began at 7:35 P. M., chaired by President Gordon Taylor.

New Vehicles: Fraser and Dorothy Field have acquired another ambulance, this being a 1948 G. M. Product, and Ivan Catchpaw has purchased a 1966 Dodge Charger.

Guests: Casey Van Gool who has a Model A Ford.

Minutes: moved by Ivan Catchpaw and seconded by Mike Doyle to approve the minutes from last month's meeting as circulated, carried.

Treasurer's Report: Cindy Ouimet and Millie Doyle gave the report.

Millie also reported that she and Don Warren presented a cheque to the Variety Club for $1700, being a donation from Old Car Sunday in the Park. The presentation will be shown on television Feb. 13 between 10 - 12 A. M. Millie also stated Don Warren put out a challenge to other members of the VCCC to donate to the Variety Club.

Club signing officers: Moved By Jeanette Wright and seconded by Kathy Nicolette that Millie Doyle be added as a signing officer, carried.

Correspondence: A and W coupons, KMS catalog, thank you card from Erik Lindberg and a thank you card from Tabor Home.

Henry Lehn asked Leroy Clingwall to thank the club and members for flowers, cards and phone calls he has received.

Five year bars were given out to members who have been in the club for 5 years. 1 Governor bar, 2 Past President bar and 1 President bar were also given out.

The APRIL meeting will be held on the SECOND Wednesday instead of the first for April only.

Some discussion about summer meetings which will be discussed further, one suggestion was to have a social gathering at Hougen Park.

Gordon also reminded members to check that cars listed in the Roster are correct.

Membership: Rick Unger reminded everyone to renew before the end of February to be included in the Roster. The Chapter has 75 members to date.

Name Tag Draw: $10 - won by George Coupland - absent.

Rick will have a report on our point system at KMS Tools next meeting.

Governor's Report: next meeting is in April.

50/50 Draw: $68.50 - won by Peter Ouimet.

Linda Mills had a book available for members to borrow called "Follow Your Dreams" which she recommended people read which she had received from Mike Strachan.

Ray and Linda Lamb volunteered to co-ordinate a meeting with members who had volunteered to assist with entertainment and events.

Frank Nicolette said the Can-Am Tour will be held in Abbotsford on Sept. 17 - 18. And he was looking for ideas in how the club could participate/ host the tour. The tour is looking for a parking area close to the Super 8 Motel for trailers and tow vehicles.

Gordon Taylor reported he had received information that Leo Vitick had passed away in December and our condolences go out to the family.

Richard Heyman has been in contact with the National Web Master - Richard said if you wished to have pictures etc. posted on the web to forward items to him and he would take care of them.

To-night's guest speaker was Ricardo Sestito who is involved with many organizations relating to the old car hobby. Ricardo is Chairman of the SVA, involved with the World of Wheels car show, involved with the Langley Cruise In and an insurance broker who handles Haggerty Insurance for collector vehicles.

Ricardo gave an outline of each of the above and told what each group is doing to help the old car hobby. Ricardo answered many questions which was very helpful to many members.

There are 18 vehicles from our club being shown at the World of Wheels show at Tradex.

Ken Pasaluko thanked John Jackman for all the work he has done for the club arranging events and the World of Wheels club display.

Linda Lamb - lady's breakfast will be held Wednesday Feb.16, at the ABC restaurant (corner of Marshall and Clearbrook Roads) at 9:30 A. M.

Leroy Clingwall will have the usual men's coffee the same day and time at 2048 Orchard Drive.

Frank Nicolette had some Big Valley jokes.

Kathy and Frank Nicolette thanked the club for awarding the Governor's Award to them for last year.

Ray Woodman had some shop manuals for various vehicles - free to members.

Jeanette Wright thanked everyone for their cards, calls and visits to Joe while he was recuperating from his recent back surgery.

Jeanette Wright moved for adjournment at 8:45 P.M., carried.

Respectfully submitted by Leroy Clingwall, secretary.
